Dear John,

Thank you for your letter which I received today 5th July 2018. I must really thank you for your ability to write. Congratulations on winning the second prize in the national-level Art competition. Your parents must be proud of you. Your father has always hoped that you would join the ranks of Picasso and Leonardo da Vinci . Keep on practising and participating in more competitions to improve your skills. Participating in higher level competitions will encourage you to achieve greater progress, so look out for such opportunities. I'll look for advertisements and will let you know if I come across any worthwhile competitions. Meantime, continue to improve your skills. Pay attention to techniques used by great artists, study them and develop your own style and special talents. With determination and hard work, you will succeed.

John, along your way to success, there may be times of hardship, when things do not work out. Do not give up, but go on, for success comes to those who do not quit. Really, I felt sorry to hear that your brother James did poorly in his recent exam. Tell him not to be sad but to make more efforts to get better results next time.

Well, John, I think you've heard enough from me for the time being. I'll be meeting you in person after ten days and we'll have the opportunity to talk. Continue develop your talents and help James discover his.

Your uncle,

Francis

VI. Reading Comprehension (20Marks)

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

A famous guitarist, named Tommy, was very happy to hear from New York City police that his $100,000 guitar had been found. He lost it 3 days ago when he got out of a taxi and forgot to take the guitar with him. Tommy, 44 years old, said he was running late that day. He was talking to his manager on his mobile phone when he rushed out of the taxi. He said that he gave the driver $20 and told him to keep the change. He walked through the front doors of the concert hall still talking on the phone with his manager. Upon discovering his loss, Tommy used his phone to call the police. The policeman asked him for the name of the taxi company and the number of the taxi.

"This year has been a very sad one," said Tommy. "I had to stop the recording of two new CDs. I've been paying 5 dollars a day for using a guitar that is not mine. And I was losing hope of ever finding my lost guitar." Yesterday, Tommy found his valuable guitar which costs that much. The guitar had been discovered in the corner of a coffeehouse only two streets away from where Tommy had lost it a year ago. Tommy had offered a $10,000 reward for its return. He said he would give the reward to the coffeehouse owner, who had notified the police.
