Really reading is at all times and ages a source of knowledge as there is no better companion than a good book. It is good for your overall well - being. Once you start reading you experience a whole new world. When you start this habit you eventually get addicted to it. It develops language skills and vocabulary. Also it is a source of happiness as a way to relax and reduce stress. Reading for a few minutes each day is a natural exercise to stretch the brain muscles for healthy functioning. Books really're your best friends as you can rely on them when you're bored, upset, depressed, lonely or annoyed. They'll accompany anytime you want them and enhance your mood. They share with you information and knowledge anytime you need. Good books always guide you to correct path in life.

In my opinion, it's a factory of pleasure and joy too. When I read a book, I just indulge myself in reading and experience a whole new world. Once I start reading a book I get so captivated I never want to leave it until I finish it. It always gives me a lot of pleasure to read a good book and cherish it for a lifetime.

There're several kinds of books that help you to develop positive thinking as reading in yoga. Reading spiritual books developing your soul and lets you realizing more and more about the world around you. Also, it upgrades you wrong concepts to understand the matters with both mind and heart. Reading historical books is a very exciting matter as you can make a tourism tour in your seat. Social books also, makes us learn the art of communication, it makes you literally open minded person. Not only does it improve your communication, it also makes you a better writer. Good communication's very important in every aspect of life. Scientific books keep your mind active and enhance your creative ability.

In conclusion, my advice keeping the habit of reading is one of the best qualities that a person can posses. We must all read on a daily basis for at least 30 minutes to enjoy the sweet fruits of reading .It's a great fun and pleasure to sit in a quiet place and enjoy reading. Reading book's the most enjoyable experience one can have.
